a new york review books original in 1905 the young swiss writer robert walser arrived in berlin to join his older brother karl already an important stage set designer and immediately threw himself into the vibrant social and cultural life of the city berlin stories collects his alternately celebratory droll and satirical observations on every aspect of the bustling german capital from its theaters cabarets painters galleries and literary salons to the metropolitan street markets the tiergarten rapid service restaurants and the electric tram originally appearing in literary magazines as well as the feuilleton sections of newspapers the early stories are characterized by a joyous urgency and the generosity of an unconventional guide later pieces take the form of more personal reflections on the writing process memories and character studies all are full of counter intuitive images and vignettes of startling clarity showcasing a unique talent for whom no detail was trivial at grips with a city diving headlong into modernity

the ultimate literary bucket list the washington post celebrate the pleasure of reading and the thrill of discovering new titles in an extraordinary book that is as compulsively readable entertaining surprising and enlightening as the 1 000 plus titles it recommends covering fiction poetry science and science fiction memoir travel writing biography children's books history and more 1 000 books to read before you die ranges across cultures and through time to offer an eclectic collection of works that each deserve to come with the recommendation you have to read this but it is not a proscriptive list of the great works rather it is a celebration of the glorious mosaic that is our literary heritage flip it open to any page and be transfixed by a fresh take on a very favorite book or come across a title you always meant to read and never got around to or like browsing in the best kind of bookshop stumble on a completely unknown author and work and feel that tingle of discovery there are classics of course and unexpected treasures too lists to help pick and choose like offbeat escapes or a long climb but what a view and its alphabetical arrangement by author assures that surprises await on almost every turn of the page with cormac mccarthy and the road next to robert mccloskey and make way for ducklings alice walker next to isaac walton there are nuts and bolts too best editions to read other books by the author if you like this you'll like that recommendations and an interesting endnote of adaptations where appropriate add it all up and in fact there are more than six thousand titles by nearly four thousand authors mentioned a life changing list for a lifetime of reading 948 pages later you still want more the washington post
